Dear Sirs,

re: Doris Maritime Services S.A.

My partner, Hugh Bryant, has asked that I provide you with a character reference on the above company.

The principal of the Company, Mr Nicholas Wirth, has been known to the writer personally for 25 years and the Company has been a client of this firm for more than 10 years. During this period, we have handled a variety of cases on behalf of Doris Maritime and have dealt with Mr Wirth and a number of employees of the Company.

We are very pleased to confirm that Doris is a company of high repute, and Mr Wirth is of good character. We have no hesitation in recommending that you enter into a business relationship with the Company or Mr Wirth, although we are unable to give any guarantees in this regard, which we are sure you will appreciate.

Please do not hesitate to revert, should you wish for some further information.

Yours faithfully,

Brian Williamson,
Williamson & Horrocks
